SANTRY KNOCKED OUT

By Terry McGovern in Five Rounds Last Night at Chicago—Greatest Boxing Show Chicago Has Seen.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, at Tattersalls, to-night, proved his right to the title of feather-weight champion of the world, by knocking out Eddie Santry, of Chicago, who claimed the leadership of the 122-pound class by virtue of a knock-out of Ben Jordan, of England. The knock-out came in the fifth round, after a fierce mix-up in which Santry did some clever work. Terry, however, was too strong for the Chicago lad, and straightening Santry up with a short arm jolt to the stomach, landed left and right to the jaw in quick succession and Santry fell to the floor on his face. He got up at the count of ten, but was in such a weakened condition, that referee George Siler declared McGovern the winner to save Santry from further punishment, as he was staggering all over the ring and would have been out with the next blow.

Santry was down in the second round for the count, but got up strong, and in long range fighting, had a shade the advantage, as Terry seemed to be unable to solve Santry's two handed work. Santry's clever blocking appeared to bother McGovern for a while, as he was unable to reach the stomach with any effect. Santry tried to fight at long range, but Terry would rush head-long and took many a left jab on the nose in his anxiety to land a knock-out.

In the third Santry made an even break of it, doing some good jabbing, and Terry was unable to get in close enough to use the short arm jolts that have made him famous. In the fourth round Terry commenced playing for the jaw, which sent Santry to the floor for the count. The blow weakened Santry and when he got up he clung to save himself. On the break, Terry started playing for the body and this time he was able to land and from that time to the end of the fight Santry gradually grew weak from Terry's pile-driving short arm jolts. Near the end of the round, Santry rallied and drove his left to Terry's face, but the latter did not appear to mind the blow and made a head-long rush for Santry and sent him to the floor with a right to the jaw.

Santry tried to keep away in the fifth, but Terry slowed him down with a breath taking blow in the stomach. Santry seeing he could not escape from McGovern, made a stand in the middle of the ring. Both were swinging wildly when suddenly Terry upper-cut Santry on the jaw. Santry's guard dropped for the smallest fraction of a second and McGovern whipped the left over to the jaw. He followed the blow up with a right swing and caught Santry on the ear as he was falling. Santry fell to the floor on his face and rolled over. At the count of nine he got to his knees and tried to straighten up but was unable to stand and the referee gave the fight to McGovern. Santry was unable to leave the ring for fully ten minutes after being counted out. McGovern did not have a mark on him as he left the ring.

The betting before the fight was 2 to 1 that Santry would be knocked out before the end of the six rounds.

There was a dispute about the rules before the men entered the ring, owing to the fact that Santry had never fought under rules allowing hitting in the clinches. The matter was finally settled by McGovern agreeing that if Santry would fight straight Marquis of Queensbury rules and was on his feet at the end of the contest it should be declared a draw.

It was the greatest boxing show ever brought off in Chicago. Special trains were run from nearby towns and fully 15,000 people jammed and pushed through the building. The box receipts amounted to over $18,000.

BOXING.

Oscar Gardner will begin a course of training next week that will find him in the best possible shape for Terry McGovern on March 9. His manager, P. H. Sullivan, arrived in Wheeling from New York yesterday, to superintend the production of "The Bowery After Dark," in which he is financially interested, at the Grand, and in which Oscar and his brother, Eddie, do a boxing specialty during the Wheeling engagement, and on Sunday night Sullivan and the Gardners will leave for West Baden, Ind., where Oscar will indulge in the baths at the famous springs there and spar daily with Eddie. The party will stay at West Baden about two weeks, after which they will go to Lakewood, N. J., where Oscar will complete his training. Lakewood is the re-

A Cure for Constipation.

I have been troubled with constipation for years. It was ruining my health, my comfort and my complexion, and I am glad to say that Celery King has restored all three, and this after trying many other medicines that were supposed to be good, but which were of no value whatever. sort frequented by Corbett, Ruhlin and other well known fast artists.

According to "Paddy" Sullivan, Oscar Gardner's big-hearted manager, the betting on the Gardner-McGovern fight has not yet begun in New York, but when it does the odds will likely be 2 to 1. McGovern favorite. Much of the betting will be on the number of rounds Gardner will stay. Sullivan is confident of Oscar's success, and thinks that McGovern will be put out. "A rapid fight is looked for, no matter which way it goes. The question of weight has not yet been fixed, this matter being in the hands of McGovern's manager, who has agreed to let Sullivan know three weeks before the battle. This seems funny, but 'McGovern is champion, you know,' says Sullivan, 'and he dictates terms. It will have to be 122 pounds or under to be for the featherweight championship, but we think that McGovern can't do as low as Oscar, and he will be a lightweight in a year.'

The Metropolitan club may match Louden Campbell and Sam Bolan for the night of Dewey Day, at 125 pounds. There was a prospect of Eddie Gardner and Dave Sullivan, but Eddie will be out of town then with Oscar. Eddie may be seen soon before a New York club. He will first have to fight there in a preliminary.

FAST TEAM FOR WHEELING

Is Being Signed by Messrs. Healy and Lytle—Bates is One of the New Pitchers—Two National League Twirlers Coming.

Yesterday, President Peter Healy and Manager E. B. Lytle, of the Wheeling club, of the Inter-state base ball league, announced their plans for the season of 1900. Most important among their declarations is the announcement that the club will play Sunday ball on the home grounds. Three parks are in sight, one over the river (for Sunday games only), and two in Wheeling, at one of which, if secured, Sunday ball will be played. The club management is confident it will be able to play Sunday ball this year, and cites the successful fight made last season by the Fort Wayne club, which came out on top after an all-season fight with the ministers.

The management is sparing no expense in securing good men for the 1900 team, and will not stand "pat" until the gong rings in the opening of the championship season on May day. Most of the men now under contract have more than local reputations, having played fast ball in the more important minor leagues. In addition, the club has strings out for two strong National League pitchers, and intends to purchase the releases of Outfielder Dobbs from Indianapolis, and Catcher Donahue from Dayton. The acquisition of these men will require the expenditure of several hundred dollars, but they will insure giving Wheeling the best ball team she has ever had. This requirement and the fact that the league guarantee must be posted in a few days, induce the club to put on the market a limited number of season books, at reduced rates. The books will be placed on sale to-morrow.

Of last year's team Second-base man Lyons, Outfielder Dobbs, First-base man Turner, Pitcher Poole, Pitcher Wells, Outfielder Lytle and Outfielder "Billy" Taylor will be retained. Poole was drafted by the Louisville National League club, but the draft has been withdrawn and Poole comes back to Wheeling, the limit in which other leagues could draft having expired. This news will be received with delight by Eddie's many friends.

Players signed or to be signed by the club, are as follows:

L. E. Ritter, catcher, from the Western league; first professional engagement with the Pennsylvania State league, catching 107 games in 1897. He was with Minneapolis in 1898, and with Comiskey's St. Pauls in '99. He is a splendid thrower and good hitter, and the management believe they have a jewel.

Another catcher is Frank Boyd, late of the Rochester and Hartford clubs, of the Eastern league, who played with Franklin in the Iron & Oil league in 1895, and with Cleveland in '96. With Hartford last season he batted .377 and fielded .925.

The other catcher is Donahue, of Dayton, who was loaned to Wheeling the latter part of last season. If possible his release will be purchased from Armour. He is a favorite with the Wheeling fans. In batting he is very strong.

"Billy" Niles is to be succeeded at third base by Pegulney, who has played with Detroit, Omaha, Galveston and Dayton; he is a fast felder, good base runner and hard hitter. Toledo, New Castle and Dayton were all after Pegulney, but he signed a Wheeling contract last fall.

For short field, Rothemel, who was with Baltimore part of last season, will be secured. He is an aggressive player of the McGraw type, always full of ginger. He is fast in all departments of the game.

Another infielder, who can be played at short or second, is Hunky Hines, with Detroit last year. His record of 129 runs in 112 games with Detroit is pretty near a record breaker. He is tipped off as one of the hardest hitters in the business.

Tom Turner, of last year's team, will be found at first base, and the "alderman," who is spending the winter in Wheeling, is in elegant condition, and is down to weight even this early in the year.

"Denny" Lyons, also with the team last year, will be found at second base, and the "fans" will jolly over this announcement, for no other player who has worn the Wheeling uniform in late years has ranked so high in the estimation of the cranks. Lyons goes south with the Cincinnati Reds to train out for the coming season, and he will doubtless surpass his fielding and batting performances of '99.

The club has four outfielders under contract, including "Billy" Taylor, who is spending the winter in Wheeling, and who is determined to show his worth with the local club. Last year he was tried out in the outfield and was decidedly speedy. As to his batting, he can be depended upon: last season he led the club until "Denny" Lyons spurted away from him. "Billy" is a decided favorite here.

Another outfielder secured is Miller, with Kansas City in '99, where he batted .316 in ninety-one games. Manning has a string attached to this player, and he is to be returned to Kansas City at the end of the season.

Still another outfielder is Fred Betts, late of Reading and Eastern league clubs. He has hit in the .300 class for the past six years. In base running Betts is a wonder.

The fourth outfielder is Congalton, of Milwaukee, whose first professional engagement was with Hamilton in the Canadian league, where he led in fielding and batted .351. Last season with Milwaukee, he hit .312. He will be played in center garden.

The pitching staff is not yet complete. Of last year's team, Poole and Wells will be retained. Poole can be relied on, and Wells may come up to his remarkable form of '98 at Springfield. The announcement that Bates, of Cleveland, who played in Wheeling in '97, and with Dayton in '98, has been secured, will be received with pleasure, and this speedy twirler ought to come pretty near leading the Inter-state slab artists. Another new pitcher for Wheeling is Murray, from Buffalo, who is tipped off as a comer. The club has also accepted terms of Pitcher Bowman, whose work on the nine of the West Virginia University in '99 was excellent. The management also has lines out for two National League twirlers, whose names cannot be given now, but if secured it can be set down as a certainty that Wheeling's pitching staff will be unequalled in the Inter-state league.

The club has also accepted the terms of Outfielder "Dot" Ebert, from the Chicago City league, whose Manager Fred Clarke, of Pittsburgh, declares to be the best ball player he knows of outside the big league. Clarke told Lytle last Monday that he would have secured Ebert for Louisville had he remained there.

Still another player who has accepted terms is John Skopek, from the Indiana-illinois league. Pitching for Joliet last year, in eight games no club secured over four hits off his delivery. He is a left hander and may prove a stayer with Wheeling.

Little Progress Made.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 1.—Little progress was made to-day in the attempt to organize the new American organization of base ball clubs on a permanent basis, because no one has been found willing to take the Philadelphia franchise without a number of strings being attached to the money required to be put up. All the new managers were engaged in holding conferences with capitalists or in seeking other moneyed men to take the Philadelphia end of the association. Late to-night the organizers succeeded in finding some one who is willing to consider the proposition, and the negotiations are still pending, with every prospect that the organizers will win out. The delegates held no regular meeting to-day, everything being in good shape except the Philadelphia end of the association.
